Vocation View: God continues to open a way for us. How is God doing something new in your life? Perhaps God is inviting you to be a priest or religious.

(Isaiah 43:16-21)

Thought for the Day: “As no one can be secure of his treasure if he keeps a thief in his house, and as a lamb cannot be sure of its life if it remains in the den of a wolf, so likewise no one can be secure of the treasure of divine grace, if he is resolved to continue in the occasion of sin.”

-St. Alphonsus Liguori

Rest in Peace: Please pray for the souls of Mary Mauch and Rosemary Conaway who recently died.

The Academics, the Artist, and the Architect: The Athenaeum of Ohio will hold a lecture on Retrieving the Catholic Tradition on Wednesday, April 10 at 7:30pm in Barlett Pastoral Center, in The Athenaeum of Ohio. In the nineteenth century, the Catholic Church rose like a phoenix from the aftermath of the French Revolution and the Napoleonic Wars. Three complementary, but contrasting revivals: the theological, artistic, and the architectural helped reinvigorated Catholicism. The dynamism of these movements continues to inspire and can help serve to reinvigorate our own age. The presenter is Father Joseph Carola, S.J., professor of patristic theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. All are welcome and admission is free. The lecture will be live-streamed at www.athenaeum.edu.
