Thought for the Day: "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed. There is here a particular reference to ourselves; we hold in our hearts once we have not seen in the flesh. We are included in these words, but only if we follow up our faith with good works. The true believer practices what he believes. But of those who pay only lip service of faith, Paul has this to say: They profess to know God, but they deny Him in their works."

Divine Mercy Sunday: The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday, April 19 and continues through Divine Mercy Sunday, April 28. To honor the Solemnity, we will have Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet after the 11am Mass on Sunday, April 28. I encourage all of you to be present for this devotion which takes about fifteen minutes. A person can gain a Plenary Indulgence by observing the Divine Mercy Sunday. A Plenary Indulgence remits all the temporal punishments due to sins whose guilt has been or will be forgiven in the Sacrament of Confession. It is also necessary to receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father. Indulgences can be applied to oneself or the faithful departed.

Votive Lights: Beginning this weekend, no LARGE votive candles may be lit until after the Easter Vigil. The last day to light SMALL votive candles is Wednesday of Holy Week.

Fish Fry: Our last Lenten Fish Fry will be held on Good Friday from 4-7pm.
