Vocation View: "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son." God's love is powerful and all consuming, responding to this Love leads to a life-changing encounter! (John 3:16) If you want to talk about your discernment, please contact Fr. Dan Schmitmeyer, Director of Vocations at dschmitmeyer@catholiccincinnati.org.

Class of 2020

Thought for the Day: When you turn to God with blind trust and surrender yourself unconditionally and unreservedly to Him, entirely resolved to put aside your own hopes and fears; in short, determined to wish nothing except what he wishes and to wish all that He wishes. From this moment you will acquire perfect liberty and will never again be able to feel troubled or uneasy, and there is no power on earth capable of doing you violence or giving you a moment's unrest.

Fr. Jean Baptiste Saint-Jure, S.J.

UPPER LOT REPAIR: Upper lot repair continues. Hopefully, it will be finished soon. So for now, you need to park on Warsaw or on Carson or behind the rectory or in the lower lot. Sorry for the inconvenience.

I am thrilled to celebrate Mass together again. We will follow our normal daily Mass schedule and weekend Mass schedule. Confessions will be from 3-4 pm on Saturday afternoon. Eucharistic Adoration with confessions is Thursday afternoon from 3-5 pm.

For all Masses, we will observe health and safety guidelines. So, for example, we will observe social distancing: pews and seating within the pews have been marked. The side pews will be for families. There will be ushers available to help you with seating. You are welcome to wear a mask but it is not required. If you can, bring your own hand sanitizer. We do have some but it's limited. The maintenance staff will be disinfecting the church after Masses. It would be considerate of everybody to please refrain from attending Mass if you have a fever or any flu-like symptoms.

For Communion, everyone will come up the center aisle in a staggered line, right or left, every 6 feet and return to the pews by the side aisles. Please come up to the Communion rail and kneel or stand. Before Mass, I will go over how you come up for Communion and return to your seat.

The upper parking lot is still under construction. The construction crew is moving as fast as they are able. It should be completed soon. In the meantime, you can park on Warsaw or on Carson or behind the rectory and in the lower lot.

Again, I am thrilled that we are celebrating Mass together. See you in church.
