Fr. Watkins' Desk

Vacation: I am in Oklahoma City visiting family. I will be back the weekend of July 23 and 24. While I am away, Fr. Westerhoff will have most of the Masses and Deacon Tracy Jamison will take care of Eucharistic Adoration.

Beacons of Light: As of July 1, St. Lawrence, St. Teresa, St. William and Resurrection are a family of parishes SW4. Fr. Zach Cecil is the Pastor. Fr. Bob Keller and I are Senior Vicars; Fr. Scott Morgan a Vicar.

Eucharistic Adoration: Eucharistic Adoration is every Thursday afternoon from 3 – 5 p.m. Part of the time, during the first hour, I hear Confessions. Remember, you can gain a plenary indulgence by spending at least one half hour in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The requirements for gaining a plenary or partial indulgence are the performance of the indulgenced work and the fulfillment of three conditions: sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion, prayer for the pope's intentions. A further requirement for a plenary is the exclusion of all attachment to sin, even venial sin.

St. Lawrence Summer Celebration:

Our Summer Celebration will begin after the 4:30 Mass on Saturday, August 13th. Here are some more details.

At the Summer Celebration we will have the drawing for the Major Award. Our Major Award Early Bird drawing winner is Bob Burlage. Congratulations!

Like last year, there will be a catered dinner and bar. Also, a basket booth and split the pot. Some more things for the evening are also in the works. I will keep you posted as things develop.

Summer Series: The United States of America is more politically divided than ever. Why? One of the major causes of division is that we no longer have a unified theoretical framework for basic moral reasoning and determining human rights and duties. We will address this practical problem in our summer study series on Natural-Law Ethics, which meets Tuesday evenings 7:00-8:00 pm in the Parish Center, from June 28th to August 9th. This parish study series is designed for anyone who is struggling to understand the Catholic approach to the science and art of ethics, especially for inquirers into the Catholic Faith. Everyone is welcome to attend any or all sessions, but we ask that you invite any non-Catholic family members or friends who are interested in the topics and bring them with you to the meetings. This series will be facilitated by Deacon Jamison, PhD, Professor of Philosophy at Mount St Mary's Seminary & School of Theology. A basic manual of ethics will be available for purchase, and readings will be assigned each week. In preparation for the first session, please read Plato's Euthyphro, which can easily be found online.

June 28 – The Major Theoretical Options for Ethics as a Science

July 5 – The Human Good and the Nature and Pursuit of Happiness

July 12 – The Human Act, Voluntariness, and the Natural Basis for Morality

July 19 – How to Judge the Morality of Human Acts according to Natural Law

July 26 – Levels of Moral Knowledge and the Nature of Human Conscience

August 2 – An Overview of the Natural Human Virtues, Rights, and Duties

August 9 – The Application of Natural Law to Relations of Church and State

From a sermon on charity by St. Basil the Great, bishop

Sow integrity for yourselves

Man should be like the earth and bear fruit; he should not let inanimate matter appear to surpass him. The earth bears crops for your benefit, not to its own, but when you give to the poor, you are bearing fruit which you will gather in for yourself, since the regard for good deeds goes to those who perform them. Give to a hungry man, and what you give becomes yours, and indeed it returns to you with interest. As the sower profits from wheat that falls onto the ground, so will you profit greatly in the world to come from the bread that you place before a hungry man. Your husbandry must be the sowing of heavenly seed: Sow integrity for yourselves, says Scripture.

You are going to leave your money behind you here whether you wish it or not. On the other hand, you will take with you to the Lord the honor that you have won through good works. In the presence of the universal judge, all the people will surround you, acclaim you as a public benefactor, and tell of your generosity and kindness.

Do you not see how people throw away their wealth on theatrical performances, boxing contests, mimes and fights between men and wild beasts, which are sickening to see, and for all the sake of fleeting honor and popular applause? If you are miserly with your money, how can you expect any similar honor? Your reward for the right use of the things of this world will be everlasting glory, a crown of righteousness, and the kingdom of heaven; God will welcome you, the angels will praise you, all men who have existed since the world began will call you blessed. Do you care nothing for these things, and spurn the hopes that lie in the future for the sake of your present enjoyment. Come, distribute your wealth freely, give generously to those in need. Earn for yourself the psalmist's praise: He gave freely to the poor; his righteousness will endure forever.

How grateful you should be to your own benefactor; how you should beam with joy at the honor of having other people come to your door, instead of being obliged to go to theirs! But you are now ill-humored and unapproachable; you avoid meeting people, in case you might be forced to loosen your purse-strings even a little. You can say only one thing: "I have nothing to give you. I am only a poor man,." A poor man you certainly are, and destitute of all real riches; you are poor in love, generosity, faith in God and hope of eternal happiness.

The Laurentian

From the Imitation of Christ

The kingdom of God is the peace and joy of the Spirit

Turn to the Lord with your whole heart and leave behind this ratched world. Then your soul shall find rest. For the kingdom of God is the peace and joy of the Holy Spirit. If you prepare within your heart a fitting dwelling place, Christ will come to you and console you.

His glory and beauty are within you, and he delights in dwelling there. The Lord frequently visits the heart of man. There he shares with man pleasant conversations, welcome consolation, abundant peace and a wonderful intimacy.

So come, faithful soul. Prepare your heart for your spouse to dwell within you. For he says: If anyone loves me, he will keep my word and we shall come to him and make our dwelling within him.

Make room for Christ. When you possess Christ you are a rich man, for he is sufficient for you. He himself, shall provide for you and faithfully administer all your cares. You will not have to place your hope in men. Put all your trust in God; let him be both your fear and your love. He will respond on your behalf and will do whatever is in your best interest.

You have here no lasting city. For wherever you find yourself, you will always be a pilgrim from another city. Until you are united intimately with Christ, you will never find your true rest.

Let your thoughts be with the Most High and direct your prayers continually to Christ. If you do not know how to contemplate the glory of heaven, take comfort in the passion of Christ, and dwell willingly in his sacred wounds. Endure with Christ, suffer for him, if you wish to reign with him.

Once you have entered completely into the depths of Jesus, and have a taste of his powerful love, then you will not care about your own convenience or inconvenience. Rather you will rejoice all the more in insults and injuries, for the love of Jesus makes a man scorn his own needs.
