REV. ZACHARY W. CECIL, PASTOR

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick—After Office Hours 513-512-5805

The mission of the Westside Catholic Family of Parishes is to create a solid Catholic culture on the West side of Cincinnati through authentic worship, strong devotion, and loving outreach. We intend to be a strong source of truth, beauty, and goodness that attracts people to the faith, reengages those who have fallen away, and strengthens the faith of practicing Catholics.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

July 9, 2023

Dear Westside Catholic Family,

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

These words from our Gospel remind us that we are made to find rest in our Lord. This sentiment is not just a nice idea or a thought; by nature, it is a part of who we are as humans. God rested on the seventh day of creation. We have been made in the image and likeness of God. Rest is God's gift to us. And the highest form of rest and leisure is worship.

The idea that our worship is a form of leisure may sound odd. But leisure and rest properly understood is the goal of why we work. Now, there are many reasons we have to work: to provide for our families, housing, and the basic necessities of life. Work is also meant to have rewards. We work to live a flourishing life, and we don't live to work. The reward or goal that all of us should aim for is that relationship and worship of God. We work for Sunday. This is why Sunday is so important as a day of rest and worship.

Unfortunately, in our modern times, work and busyness have taken away more of the freedom that we once had on Sunday. Instead of finding rest and leisure, we find going to Mass has become an obligation to try to fit in among the other obligations that fill our schedule. It becomes less about what we live for and just one more thing to mark off the to-do list. But this is not what we were made for. With the constant speed of our society, it is no wonder that more and more people struggle with burnout, stress, and anxiety. An interesting factoid about our culture is "the mark of success." Over time the measure of what it means to be successful has changed drastically. It has gone from the new car, the bigger house, or even fame to being busy. Yes, people "feel" most successful when they are busy. Being busy is feeling needed, appreciated for your work, and in demand. Not all of this is bad. However, when that is the goal of our lives, we very easily begin to live for our work.

As we come together on Sunday in worship, let's push back against the world's busyness. Let us make space in our lives to live as we have been created to live. To not only create room for God and our worship but to allow that time of rest and leisure to lift us up and support who we are. Instead of Sunday being just one more day, let us make Sunday the day we work for, the day that we come together as a community and a family, and the day that helps us remember in whose image we have been created.

Have a blessed week!

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Zach

Fr. Zachary Cecil

(Romans 8:13)

For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live

RESPECT LIFE

In Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, the Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade and returned the issue of abortion to the people's elected representatives at both the state and federal level. Despite this monumental legal victory, abortion policy is far from settled.

Sadly, over the past year, several states have used this opportunity to not only keep abortion legal, but also to pursue even more extreme pro-abortion policies. Currently, abortion is legal in more states than not. Our dedicated efforts are desperately needed in the months and years to come to protect preborn children and their mothers from the tragedy of abortion.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that we are "the salt of the earth" and "the light of the world" (Mt. 5:13-14). As Catholics, we have a duty to pursue the common good and to work for the protection of the most vulnerable. Our faith, formed by the teachings of the Church, should guide our engagement in civic life.

Each of us is called to live out our faith publicly, witnessing to the Gospel. For, "if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot" (Mt. 5:15-16). We cannot hide our faith under the "bushel basket." Rather, our "light must shine before others" (Mt. 5:15-16).

Inspired by the Gospel, we must do what we can to end violence in the womb, to ensure that preborn children are fully protected by our laws, and to support mothers and fathers in welcoming and nurturing their children. May we all faithfully embrace our shared Christian responsibility and be strengthened by God's grace when we encounter resistance or persecution. Together, may we help build a culture of life and civilization of love in our nation.

THE DEACON'S CORNER

A Reflection "For the sake of my brothers and friends I say 'Peace be with you.' For our sake of the house of the Lord, our God, I pray for your good." Psalm 122:6-9

I was talking with someone the other day who had been away from the Church for about thirty years. As happens to many young people, after her teenage years she slowly drifted away from the practice of her faith. Some folks may say that the world just got in the way, with too many competing priorities. Faith or religion are not the same thing. Somehow neither seemed that important once we grew into young adults, free to think on our own. Church, if it happened, was for somebody's wedding or a funeral, otherwise it didn't seem to matter.

As we get a little older, we may tend to think in different terms. Our time horizon for life is shorter. Our sense that something may be missing in our lives may nudge us into wondering whether our experience of including Jesus in our daily lives really mattered after all. Is that the "something" that is missing?

While the invitation is always there, this is the time of the year when our churches begin to plan the fall and wintertime calendar for adult faith formation sessions for anyone interested in learning about the experience of God in our lives. Whether a person has been away for thirty years or thirty weeks, or whose life has been interrupted by a divorce, or who may have a longing to grow in their faith, the formation sessions are open to anyone. As Jesus responded when the fishermen asked him where he stayed, he said, "Come and see." What they saw changed their lives forever.

A Prayer: Lord God, I give you all praise and thanks for your love and mercy. You fill up my life with your goodness. I long for your presence. Help me to seek you always and to find you when I am lost. I offer my prayer in the Holy Name of Jesus. Amen.
~DEACON DAVE

A INTRODUCTION

MR. JACK COREY, ST. WILLIAM PRINCIPAL

"I am very pleased to have been appointed the next principal of St. William School. Since 1999, I have served as a school administrator in both Catholic and public schools, in rural, suburban, and urban settings. Prior to my most recent experience as an administrator in Cincinnati Public Schools, I spent 10 years as the principal of St. Antoninus School.

After graduating high school, I left Cincinnati to enlist in the Army, spending most of my time in Neckarsulm, Germany. After my honorable discharge from the Army, I attended Boston College and graduated with a degree in English.

My career in education began in Houston, TX where I met my wife, Mary Beth. We then moved to Alaska and Oregon, where I earned my Masters at Portland State University and began my administrative career. After spending nine years in Oregon, we moved to Michigan before settling in the West Side of Cincinnati in 2006.

Mary Beth is currently teaching Spanish at Elder. We have two children, Mary Catherine and Joseph, who attended Seton and Elder respectively.

I look forward to engaging with the St. William school and parish community." ~Mr. Jack Corey

HOW WE GOT SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

St. Junipero Serra

This is the second installment on the life of Saint Junipero Serra (1713-1784)

On September 15, 1731 Fray Junipero made his final commitment through religious profession in the Franciscan Order. His physical ailments virtually disappeared from then on, so much so that during his life as a missionary he was able to cover extraordinary distances by running on foot. In Palma, in the Spanish Balearic Island, Fray Junipero brilliantly completed a three-year course in philosophy, followed by another in theology. He was ordained a priest in 1737. His superiors directed him towards teaching, for which they considered him to have a natural gift. He became a professor in philosophy, and five years later, also of theology, at the Luliana University in Palma, and was highly regarded there.

Yet this intellectual ministry proved insufficient to fulfill his aspirations, and in his spare time he went out to preach to the people all over the island.

The young friar had been struck during his studies by the accounts written by the missionaries of his Order who had settled in Latin America. At the age of 35, Fray Junipero responded to a new call from God, which he had been patiently discerning in his heart, and obtained permission from his superior to go to "New Spain" (Mexico) as a missionary.

After a stay of eight months in Cadiz, Spain, where he was held up by administrative and material setbacks, he embarked on a vessel bound for America with 20 fellow Franciscans as well as 10 Dominicans in 1749. The voyage took 90 days; the water supply had been miscalculated and during the final days the passengers had to be severely rationed. "In order to be less thirsty, I resolve to speak less", Brother Junipero would later explain. His courage and discipline were an encouragement to all. The ship stopped at Puerto Rico, in the West Indies, to stock water and supplies. A small hermitage provided shelter for the Franciscans, who used it to set up a mission for the time of their stopover, offering relief to the small number of priests living on the island. On his departure, Junipero was able to say that all the Puerto Ricans had gone to confession.

On November 1, after a false start that almost ended in shipwreck, the ship set sail for the mainland of Mexico. The crossing proved difficult because the ship was overloaded. On December 2, the passengers sighted the Mexican coast, but a violent storm drove back their ship. On the 4th, the crew mutinied against the captain and the pilot. The missionaries assembled to pray and agreed that if they were to survive this peril, they would especially honor the saint whose name would be drawn by lot. It turned out to be Saint Barbara, a 4th century martyr who had her feast on that very day. They arrived in Vera Cruz on December 9 and they celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving on the following day in honor of Saint Barbara, to whom Junipero later dedicated a mission in California which was to be the birthplace of the city of Santa Barbara!

We'll continue the remarkable life of Saint Junipero Serra in next Sunday's bulletin. See the monthly newsletter of the Saint Joseph de Clairval Abbey.

IN THE LITURGY THIS WEEK

He founded 12 monasteries, including Monte Cassino. Today Benedictine religious numbers about 6,800. Saint Benedict is the "Patriarch of Western Monasticism" and is a patron saint of Europe. Sixteen popes have chosen the name Benedict.

Friday, July 13: Feast of Saint Henry. Henry II, together with his wife, Saint Cunegunda (Yes, there really is a Saint Cunegunda! She is the patroness of Luxembourg.) assisted the poor and promoted ecclesiastical and monastic reform.

Saturday, July 14: Feast of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, called "Lily of the Mohawks" led a life of great austerity and love.

REFLECTION: FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME MEET AND HUMBLE GOD

Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that he is "meek and humble of heart." Yet just a few lines before this, he says that he is equal to his Father, the almighty God. So how can the Son of God be both meek and mighty?

Jesus' meekness meant doing the will of God completely. The challenge for us comes in his words "learn from me." We must learn to do God's will as completely as Jesus did.

First, to be complete means that we do all that God wants from us. We cannot pick and choose what we want to do and what we want to ignore. For example, we may reserve the right to decide which teachings of the Church we will follow. But doing God's will completely means doing it without reservation.

Second, we may try to do all that God asks, but give up if something becomes too difficult. We may say we forgive someone, for example, but when they reject that forgiveness, we become even angrier. We can learn from Jesus how to do each part of God's will to completion, as Jesus did all the way to the cross.

~Tom Schmidt
