REV. ZACHARY W. CECIL, PASTOR

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick—After Office Hours 513-512-5805

The official publication of the Westside Catholic Family of Parishes

The mission of the Westside Catholic Family of Parishes is to create a solid Catholic culture on the West side of Cincinnati through authentic worship, strong devotion, and loving outreach. We intend to be a strong source of truth, beauty, and goodness that attracts people to the faith, reengages those who have fallen away, and strengthens the faith of practicing Catholics.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

July 2, 2023

Dear Westside Catholic Family,

Happy 4th of July! We give thanks to God for our nation and the principles and values upon which it was founded, and that have faithfully guided us through countless years.

Following careful consideration and thorough planning, we are delighted to announce the launch of our brand-new bulletin for the Westside Catholic Family of Parishes this week. I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to our dedicated parish secretaries, Jo Anne Baracka, Maria Glandorf, Lisa Spicer, and Communications Director, Maria Williams, for their tireless efforts in bringing this beautiful publication to fruition. While we have incorporated various elements from each parish's bulletin, I understand that this may require some adjustment from our accustomed routine. When faced with change, it is natural to feel frustrated or question its purpose. With that said, the consolidation of our bulletins into one for our entire family will greatly enhance our communication efforts and open up abundant opportunities for prayer, worship, service, and community engagement. I am confident that this transition will prove immensely beneficial, as effective communication serves as the foundation for building something even greater than what we have ever experienced before.

Throughout the coming weeks we kindly encourage you to share your valuable feedback and constructive suggestions with us. You can reach out to us by sending an email to office@stteresa-avila.org or by contacting one of the church offices via phone. Your input is highly appreciated as it enables us to enhance the bulletin on a weekly basis. Please take note of the bulletin deadline information provided on page 4.

Looking back on the past 12 months, I cannot believe how far we have come in such a short period. I want to thank all of you for your patience, cooperation, and your prayers throughout this last year and going forward. Some of the good things that have happened are worth remembering. Last fall, the Knights of Columbus hosted all of us for a picnic at Fernbank Park. Our Parish Planning Team was formed and has continued to meet and advise the leadership of our parishes. Under the guidance of our Youth Minister, Monica White, our youth ministry has flourished, culminating in the creation of the Westside Catholic High School Youth Group and retreat. Furthermore, we have successfully merged our RCIA program, Vacation Bible School, and summer adult education series. The joint Easter Vigil and Divine Mercy Celebrations were resounding successes. With unyielding dedication and commitment, we remain steadfast in our pursuit of developing a pastoral plan endowed with a clear vision and hope for a promising future.

I want to offer a warm and enthusiastic welcome to our new parochial vicar, Fr. Jeff Stegbauer. I know you will all extend the same warm reception and hospitality you have shown me, for which I am very grateful.

Although we are sad that Fr. Morgan's time with us has concluded, we express our heartfelt gratitude for the many blessings he shared with us, and we will continue to pray for him as he embarks on his new assignment.

Lastly, July is the month of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ! Many of the early Fathers of the Church held firmly to this devotion because they taught that the Church began in the outpouring of our Lord's blood when he was pierced in the side at His passion. I would like to share a beautiful prayer called the Precious Blood Prayer:

Almighty, and everlasting God, who hast appointed Thine only-begotten Son to be the Redeemer of the world, and hast been pleased to be reconciled unto us by His Blood, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate with solemn worship the price of our salvation, that the power thereof may here on earth keep us from all things hurtful, and the fruit of the same may gladden us forever hereafter in heaven.

Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Zach

Stegbauer is fluent in Spanish, so for anyone seeking the Sacrament of Reconciliation in Spanish, kindly direct them to him.

Estamos inmensamente agradecidos por su presencia y las valiosas enseñanzas y fe que traerá a nuestra Familia de Parroquias. Vale la pena mencionar que el Padre Stegbauer habla español con fluidez, por lo que, para aquellos que busquen el Sacramento de la Reconciliación en español, por favor, indíquenles que se acerquen a él.

If this is not completed within 30 days of the promulgation of the Decree by the Archbishop, the user's SafeParish account will show as pending until the user completes the acknowledgement. Users with pending SafeParish accounts are not permitted to work or volunteer with youth until they have met all the child protection requirements and their SafeParish account is approved. VOCATION

Be an example of faith to your brothers and sisters; let your faith inspire others to come to know Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God.

(Matthew 16:13-19)

When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

They replied, "Some say John the Baptist,* others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father.

And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

THE DEACON'S CORNER

A Reflection "When my heart is cast down by failure, at seeing no good come from my efforts, Jesus, help me!"-the seventh petition from the prayer "Jesus Help Me".

How many times in our lives have we tried and failed? How many times have we felt let down, or let ourselves down by our own choices? I was thinking about this the other day, how there were situations in my life that could have been different. As a young guy, when given the opportunity to excel in a career as a commissioned officer in the Army, I chose not to take that step. I can't say that I included Jesus in my decision making at that time. It would have made a huge difference in my thinking if I had prayed to Jesus to guide me. But things have a way of getting worked out. If I had taken that path in life, there are many good things that have happened since then that I would have missed. Looking back on everything, I can see God's hand in guiding me to where I am today.

Disappointments come in many sizes and shapes. Pick an area of your life where there is the potential for joy and sorrow, reward and failure. Including Jesus in all of these areas of our lives is the way of seeking spiritual guidance when it matters the most.

The eighth petition of the prayer says, "When I feel impatient and my cross irritates me, Jesus, help me!"

We may not always look at our burdens and failures as crosses that we carry on our shoulders, but we have learned the lesson from Jesus that a cross can be very heavy if carried for any distance. Jesus is there to help us when we cry out to him.

A prayer: Always, Lord, in spite of my weaknesses, falls, and shortcomings of every kind: Jesus, help me and never forsake me. Amen.

~Deacon Dave

VALUING THE SOUL MORE THAN THE BODY

St. Junipero Serra

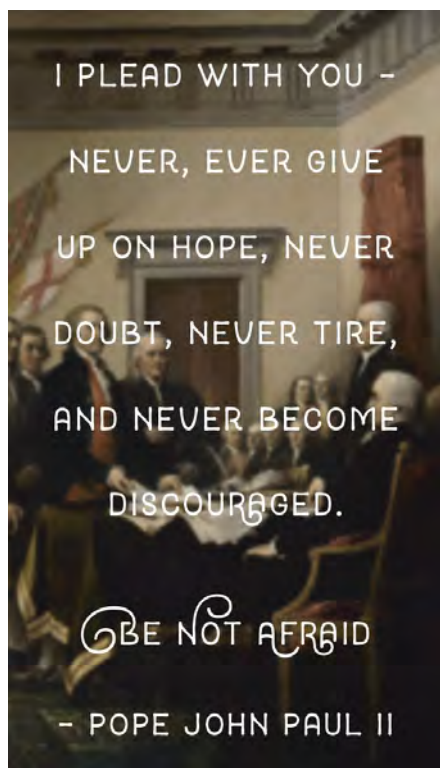

During an apostolic journey to California in 1988, Saint John Paul II visited the tomb of Junipero Serra who is now honored as a saint by the Church. His feast day is July 1st. The Pope described the significance of his pilgrimage as follows: "At crucial moments in human affairs, God raises up men and women whom he thrusts into roles of decisive importance for the future development of both society and the Church. We rejoice all the more when their achievement is coupled with a holiness of life that can truly be called heroic. So it is with Junipero Serra, who in the providence of God was destined to be the Apostle of California." A statue of this humble priest may be seen in Washington, D.C. in the Statuary Hall of the Capitol of the United States.

Junipero Serra was born in 1773 in Petra on the island of Mallorca, the largest of the Spanish Balearic Islands. He was baptized Miguel Jose. His parents, Antonio Nadal Serra and Margarita Rosa Ferrer, were peasants who could neither read nor write, but they were rich in faith and true charity. As a child, Miguel would hail passers-by with the pious local greeting which he would later spread in America and which would survive him there:

"Love God!" His parents decided that because of his delicate health, Miguel would never become a farmer or a stonemason, the two most common trades in the village. However, they perceived that he had intellectual potential and allowed him to attend the village school run by the Franciscans. He spent about ten years at the Franciscans as a schoolboy.

When he turned 16, the young man asked to join the Franciscan Order as a friar and took the name Junipero, in memory of one of the first companions of Saint Francis of Assisi, Brother Juniper, whose simple and direct personality appealed to him. He joined the convent of St. Francis in Palma as a novice: he was enchanted by the silence, the Divine Office (the Liturgy of the Hours), and the lessons centered on the life of the founder. But to his great regret, his poor health earned him several dispensations, including exemption from rising at night (the friars would get up in the middle of the night to sing Matins), which led him to worry about his final admission. But his superiors valued the quality of the soul more than bodily strength, and received him into the Franciscan Order, in which he made his final commitment through religious profession on September 15, 1731. His physical ailments virtually disappeared from then on, so much so that during his life as a missionary he was able to cover extraordinary distances by running on foot!

We will continue the life of Saint Junipero Serra, the Apostle of California, in next Sunday's bulletin. See the monthly letter of the Saint Joseph de Clairval Abbey.

REFLECTION: THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME WHO DO YOU LOVE?

Jesus asks his disciples to have total dedication to following him. As an example, he tells us that to be worthy we must love him more than we love our parents or children. If we see someone in our family stray from the faith, we try to bring them back by our prayers, example, and encouragement.

Jesus then gives examples of three kinds of disciples. First are the prophets. These are people who have lived the faith and are able to teach others the wisdom they have learned. Second are the righteous, those whose quiet lives teach by example. Many good parents practice this type of discipleship. Children may not listen to their parents' advice, but still grow up with memories of how they lived. Finally, there are the "little ones." These, like children, follow Jesus with great joy and love. They may be elderly, or disabled. When we respect and cherish them, we are able to see Jesus in them. And anytime we can experience Jesus through another person is a wonderful reward for a disciple.

~Tom Schmidt

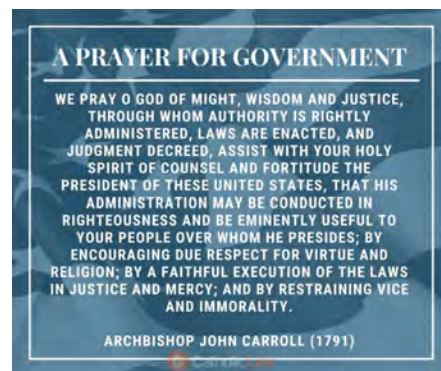

IN THE LITURGY THIS WEEK:

July 3: St. Thomas, Apostle, Patron Saint of India and Pakistan.

July 4: Independence Day is celebrated.

July 5: St. Elizabeth of Portugal, named after her great aunt, Saint Elizabeth of Hungary. Queen and mother, lover of the poor, peace-maker in the royal family; later a Franciscan tertiary, patroness of Catholic charities.

July 6: St. Maria Goretti, Virgin, Martyr. She died in 1902 at age 12. She was stabbed to death, preferring to die than to be raped. In 1950, with her mother present, she was canonized before the largest crowd ever assembled in Rome for a canonization. Also present, in disguise, was her murderer. She is patroness of teenage girls. Maria lived for some hours and offered her pain for the conversion of her killer.

Pope Pius VI named John Carroll the first bishop of the United States of America in 1789. His cousin, Charles Carroll, was one of America's Founding Fathers and the only Catholic to sign the Declaration of Independence.

Bishop John Carroll would go on to become America's first archbishop for the Diocese of Baltimore, Maryland.
